IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR
LEE COUNTY, FLORIDA CIVIL ACTION

CASE NO: 19-CA-001808

Hertz Corporation et al
Plaintiff vs
Sider, Scott
Defendant

STANDING ORDER IN CIVIL CASES IN THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

PURSUANT to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.200(a), Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.545, and Administrative Order 1.13 entered by the Chief Judge of this Circuit, the parties are ordered to adhere to the following information and procedures applicable to civil lawsuits:

1. SERVICE OF THIS ORDER. The Plaintiff is directed to serve a copy of this order with each Summons issued in this case. One copy of this Order is to be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court with proof of service. The Plaintiff shall pay the appropriate statutory clerk's fees on copies for each Standing Order issued and attached to the Summons.

2. CIVIL CASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM. The Supreme Court of Florida has established guidelines for the prompt processing and resolution of civil cases. This Court has adopted a case management system to help meet those guidelines. In contested cases (other than residential mortgage foreclosures which have a separate standing order and case management track; involuntary commitment of sexually violent predators; and eminent domain cases), the parties are required to participate in the case management system. The case management system requires early consultation and cooperation among the parties for the preparation and submission of an Agreed Case Management Plan, early interaction with a Civil Case Manager and early involvement by the Court. The Agreed Case Management Plan requires the parties to identify a case track, confer in a good faith attempt to narrow the matters in controversy, identify the issues that require direct involvement by the Court, and establish a schedule for addressing those issues.¹ The Agreed Case Management Plan may be accessed at the Court's website at: [<http://www.ca.cjis20.org/web/main/civil.asp>].

Unless all of the Defendants have been served and have defaulted, an Agreed Case Management Plan will be submitted to the Civil Case Manager, at the Lee County Justice Center, 1700 Monroe Street, Fort Myers, FL 33901, on or before 150 days from the date of filing of the initial complaint. If the parties are unable to agree on an Agreed Case Management Plan, a case management conference will be scheduled by the Court. If a case management conference is scheduled, attendance by trial counsel and those parties who are not represented by counsel is mandatory.

¹ Case Track options include Expedited, Standard or Complex. Case Tracks have been established in order to comply with the case disposition standards set forth in Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.250(a)(1)(B).

3. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR). ADR provides parties with an out-of-court alternative to settling disagreements. The Court requires the parties to participate in ADR prior to trial. Mediation is mandatory unless the parties agree to another form of ADR. Mediation is a conference at which an independent third party attempts to arrange a settlement between the parties.

4. RULES OF PROFESSIONALISM. The Twentieth Judicial Circuit has adopted Administrative Order 2.20, which sets forth standards of professional courtesy and conduct for all counsel or pro-se litigants practicing within the Circuit. The Court requires that all familiarize themselves and comply with Administrative Order 2.20. Administrative Order 2.20 may be viewed on the Court's website at: http://www.ca.cjis20.org/web/main/ao_admin.asp

5. CONTACT INFORMATION. Attorneys and pro se parties are required to keep the court apprised of their current address, telephone numbers and email address. This information is also required to be included in all pleadings filed in your case.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Fort Myers, Lee County, Florida.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR
LEE COUNTY, FLORIDA CIVIL ACTION

THE HERTZ CORPORATION and HERTZ GLOBAL HOLDINGS, INC.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

Case No. 19-CA-1808

Judge: Leigh Frizzell Hayes

SCOTT SIDER

Defendant. _____ /

MOTION TO DISMISS

Defendant, Scott Sider, by and through undersigned counsel, moves the Court, in accordance with Rules 1.130 and 1.140, of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, for an Order dismissing the Complaint and as grounds therefor say:

1. Plaintiffs, The Hertz Corporation and Hertz Global Holdings, Inc. (collectively referred to herein as "Hertz"), brought the above-styled action against Defendant, Scott Sider (referred to herein as "Sider"), alleging three counts of breach of contract and one count for declaratory judgment.

I. IMPROPER VENUE

2. Hertz has alleged within its Complaint that venue is proper in Lee County pursuant to section 47.011, Florida Statutes, "because Hertz's headquarters are in Lee County, Florida, and because the causes of actions stated herein accrued in Lee County." Compl. ¶ 13.

3. Hertz must plead facts sufficient to support a basis for venue in Lee County, and failure to make these allegations requires the Court to dismiss the action for improper venue, or to transfer. Pozo v. Roadhouse Grill, Inc., 790 So. 2d 1255 (Fla. 5th DCA 2001). Here, Hertz has not specifically pleaded factual allegations to support the venue allegation contained in Paragraph 13.

4. Section 47.011, Florida Statutes, states that “[a]ctions shall be brought only in the county where the defendant resides, where the cause of action accrued, or where the property in litigation is located.” As such, that Hertz is now headquartered in Lee County is of no moment.

5. The question before the Court is whether the causes of action alleged in the Complaint accrued in Lee County. Sider attaches the affidavit of Scott Sider, in support of this Motion, as Exhibit “A” and incorporates the same herein by reference.

i. Allegations Related to Breach of Contract

6. Hertz has alleged three separate causes of action for breach of contract in Counts I, II, and III.

7. A cause of action for breach of contract is said to have accrued in the county where the breach occurred. Precision Software, Inc. v. Gauthier, 605 So. 2d 592, 594 (Fla. 2d DCA 1992). In the case of an anticipatory breach of contract, the cause of action accrues where the repudiation was made. See Nissan N. Am., Inc. v. Vitale, 802 So. 2d 465, 467 (Fla. 2d DCA 2001).

Count I

8. Count I of the Complaint alleges that on February 13, 2019 counsel for Hertz contacted counsel for Sider and demanded return of Sider’s incentive-based compensation from fiscal years 2011, 2012, and 2013. Compl. ¶ 81.

9. Count I goes on to state that Sider refused to return the demanded incentive-based compensation and that as such Sider “materially breached his obligations under the 2010

ClawBack Policy, and his various incentive compensation agreements, by failing to remit his incentive-based compensation from fiscal years 2011, 2012, and 2013. Compl. ¶¶ 82 and 83.

10. Sider did not reside in Lee County when the demand for reimbursement and his refusal to comply with that demand occurred. See Sider Aff. ¶¶ 9 and 10.

11. Sider has lived in Collier County from December 2014 to the present. See Sider Aff. ¶ 11.

12. As such, venue is not proper in Lee County, and this matter should be dismissed or transferred to Collier County.

ii. Allegations Related to Declaratory Judgment

13. Count II of the Complaint alleges that “certain of the incentive-based compensation received by Sider in his Separation Agreement was ‘based on achievement of financial result that were the subject of’ the Company’s July 2015 Restatement.” Compl. ¶ 87.

14. Count II alleges generally that based upon “misconduct and gross negligence set forth above” and the “ClawBack Policy as amended and restated in 2014” demand was made in February 13, 2019 by counsel for Hertz upon counsel for Sider for repayment of incentive-based compensation and benefits derived from Sider’s Separation Agreement. Compl. ¶ 89.

15. Hertz alleges that Sider materially breached his obligations under the 2010 ClawBack Policy for failure to remit the incentive-based compensation. Compl. ¶ 91.

16. Sider did not live in Lee County when the demand for reimbursement or his refusal to remit the amounts demanded occurred. See Sider Aff. ¶¶ 9 and 10.

17. Sider has lived in Collier County from December 2014 to the present. See Sider Aff. ¶ 11.

18. As such, venue is not proper in Lee County, and this matter should be dismissed or transferred to Collier County.

Count III

19. Count III alleges that Sider breached his obligations under the Standards of Business Conduct based upon "gross negligence and misconduct, and failure to disclose the gross negligence and misconduct of the other aforementioned key senior executives, during and for the Restatement Period." Compl. ¶ 96.

20. Sider never worked for Hertz in Lee County. See Sider Aff. ¶¶ 9 and 10.

21. As such, venue is not proper in Lee County, and this matter should be dismissed or transferred to Collier County.

Count IV

22. Count IV alleges a cause of action for declaratory judgment denying advancement of expenses and legal fees under Section 6.01 of Article VI of the Amended and Restated By-Laws. See Compl. ¶ 91.

23. Hertz alleges that Sider is not entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses in the contract-based actions they have brought against Sider, and that even if that were the case such would be inconsistent with and negated by the ClawBack Enforcement Provision. See Compl. ¶¶ 105 and 106.

24. "A suit for declaratory relief does not, of itself, constitute a cause of action for the purpose of activating the venue statute." Royal Jones & Associates, Inc. v. Cigna Ins. Co., 575 So. 2d 309, 310 (Fla. 2d DCA 1991). "Rather, the underlying relief sought determines venue." Jacobs & Goodman, P.A. v. McLin, Burnsed, Morrison, Johnson & Robuck, P.A., 582 So. 2d 98, 100 (Fla. 5th DCA 1991).

25. The relief sought in Count IV is to avoid payment of monies that would be due under Plaintiffs' Restated By-Laws. Any indemnification or advancement of expenses due under Section 6.01 of Article VI of the Amended and Restated By-Laws would be payable to Sider, who resides in Collier County. See The Florida Companies v. BFA Corp., 424 So. 2d 48, 49 (Fla. 3d DCA 1982) (where disputed payments were to be paid determined venue based upon "the traditional view that the cause of action accrued where payment was to be received.")

26. Alternatively, Hertz seeks relief from Section 6.01 of Article VI of the Amended and Restated By-Laws based upon the ClawBack Policies and agreements pursuant to which Sider received incentive-based payments. Compl. ¶ 102. As stated above, none of the contractual actions based herein accrued in Lee County, but instead each and all of them accrued in Collier County.

27. As such, venue is not proper in Lee County, and this matter should be dismissed or transferred to Collier County.

II. FAILURE TO ATTACH DOCUMENTS

28. Rule 1.130(a) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure provides that: "[all bonds, notes, bills of exchange, contracts, accounts, or documents upon which action may be brought or defense made, or a copy thereof or a copy of the portions thereof material to the pleadings, shall be incorporated in or attached to the pleading." It is axiomatic that under Rule 1.130(a), a pleading that asserts a claim for relief based on a written instrument is subject to dismissal for failure to state a cause of action if the instrument is not attached. Safeco Ins. Co. of America v. Ware, 401 So. 2d 1129, 1130 (Fla. 4th DCA 1981); See also In re Estate of Vickery, 564 So. 2d 555 (Fla. 4th DCA 1990) (complaint which failed to allege or attach agreement did not state cause of action).

29. Hertz bases its claims in the present action upon various documents and agreements, including, but not limited to: Hertz's 2010 Compensation Recovery Policy, Hertz's 2014 Compensation Recovery Policy, Hertz's Standards of Business Conduct, a Separation Agreement, a Performance Stock Unit, an Employee Stock Option, a Price Vested Stock Unit, a July 2015 Restatement, a Resolution of February 11, 2019, and Hertz's Amended and Restated By-Laws (collectively referred to herein as the "Missing Documents").¹ However, none of these documents were attached to the Complaint.

30. Rule 1.130(a) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure provides that: "[all bonds, notes, bills of exchange, contracts, accounts, or documents upon which action may be brought or defense made, or a copy thereof or a copy of the portions thereof material to the pleadings, shall be incorporated in or attached to the pleading." It is axiomatic that under Rule 1.130(a), a pleading that asserts a claim for relief based on a written instrument is subject to dismissal for failure to state a cause of action if the instrument is not attached. Safeco Ins. Co. of America v. Ware, 401 So. 2d 1129, 1130 (Fla. 4th DCA 1981); See also In re Estate of Vickery, 564 So. 2d 555 (Fla. 4th DCA 1990) (complaint which failed to allege or attach agreement did not state cause of action).

31. The Missing Documents were therefore required to have been attached to the Complaint under Rule 1.130(a), of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Hertz's failure to attach the foregoing documents mandates that the Complaint be dismissed.

III. VIOLATION OF RULE 1.110(B), FLORIDA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

32. Rule 1.110(b) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure requires a complaint to provide short and plain statements of ultimate facts.

33. Hertz's Complaint violates this rule inasmuch as each Count not only incorporates by reference the preliminary allegations of the Complaint but also incorporates by reference all of the allegations of each preceding count. Such form of pleading has been found by Florida Courts to violate Rule 1.110(b) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure requiring dismissal. Gerentine v. Coastal Security Systems, 529 So.2d 1191 (Fla. 5th DCA 1988) and Frugoli v. Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc., 464 So.2d 1292 (Fla. 1st DCA 1985). Accordingly, Hertz' Complaint should be dismissed.

CONCLUSION

34. The allegations at issue in the Complaint occurred in Collier County, and thus venue is not proper in Lee County. This is further buttressed by the fact that Sider resides and has resided for over four years in Collier County, including when he took the actions alleged in the Complaint to provide the basis for Hertz's causes of action. See Sider Aff. ¶ 4.

35. The Complaint must be dismissed, or transferred to Collier County at the expense of Hertz.

36. Hertz failed to attach to the Complaint documents upon which its actions are based as required under the provisions of Rule 1.130(a) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Complaint must be dismissed.

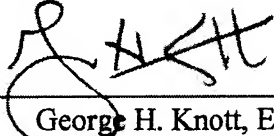

37. Hertz has failed to plead a short and plain statement of ultimate facts showing that it is entitled to relief as required by Rule 1.110(b) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Complaint should be dismissed.

38. To the extent the Court finds that the Motion to Dismiss, does not apply to all portions of the Complaint, the Sider requests an enlargement of time to respond to the Complaint until such time that the Court rules on this Motion.
